

Chelsea Center for Recycling & Economic Development

Application for Product Development or Testing

Please provide us with the information requested in the outline below.
Information should be concise, clear, and approximately two or three pages.
Please follow outline and numbering format below.

Return application to:

Alan Moore, Director of Technical Programs
Chelsea Center for Recycling & Economic Development
80 Everett Avenue, Suite 221
Chelsea, MA 02150
fax: 617-887-0399, email: alanm@chelseacenter.org

Feel free to contact Alan Moore at 617-884-4324 or alanm@chelseacenter.org with any questions, or for assistance in completing this application.

Electronic format is available on our website at www.chelseacenter.org/programsservices1.htm

1. Applicant contact information:

Company Name, Contact Name & Title, Street Address, Phone, Fax, Email

2. Company's main product(s)

3. Company's current use of recycled materials

4. Description, goals and scope of proposed project

5. Benefit gained for company, state or environment

6. Potential use/diversion from waste stream (volume/tonnage)

7. Recovered material to be used (be specific)

8. Type of testing required (list all tests)

9. Timeline

10. Budget: Include total amount of funding requested, the matching contribution the company will provide, and a breakdown of expenses. Remember – Chelsea Center funds cannot be used for capital expenditures or indirect costs.

11. Potential end markets (Massachusetts markets in particular)

12. Where will the product be manufactured?

13. Outside resources to be used (university research, consultants, etc.) – list roles of key players

14. How did you hear about the Chelsea Center? About this program?

15. Other relevant issues